JAZMINE OCHOA – YOUTH EXCHANGE

On Friday we heard from a student that participated in the short-term Youth Exchange program of Rotary International. Jazmin Ocho, a Manteca High School student, spent three weeks in Spain with a family of three. Jazmin was a student at RYLA in 2007, and was sponsored for the exchange by the Rotary club of Salida through Cathy Pierce, who was a counselor at RYLA. Jazmine stayed in the town of Sant Cugat Del Valle, located just south of Barcelona with a population of about 70,000. The town has a lot of interesting architecture which Jazmin enjoyed. While there she also took some side trips to places in Spain and France where she had some great experiences, including standing on the equator and seeing the many sights of Gerona, Spain. She commented on the many castles and statues and the general antiquity of the areas. Jazmin is planning to attend Sacramento State University.

Club Notes 11/9/07 – Guests were Rotarians Chris Hamlin from Modesto Rotary, and Rob Christensen from Columbus, MO. Others were Deon Henry from the Holiday Inn Express and Helen’s granddaughter, Amanda Buffington. Cathy rang the bell for son Jared’s upcoming recital and Wedding!
