Club Assembly

~by John Freeland - Last Friday our officers and directors informed us of their “Top Five” job duties for Rotary. They also shared with us the reasons why they love Rotary, or why they love their jobs as officers or directors. Here are some of their comments:

Joe, our Sergeant-at-Arms, loves to come to Rotary and have fun. He must not have been a Boy Scout, because he admitted he’s not prepared for each meeting. He generally does things impromptu, like introducing guests, drumming up money, keeping all the rowdies at bay and making a fool out of himself (his words). But mostly, he practices Rule #1 – have fun!

Donna filled in on Friday for George (Community Service). She enjoyed her time as Director of Community Service in part because one of her projects allowed Salida Rotary to partner with the school district and the county to put up safety signs on community streets.

Community Service is rewarding because you see the results of your efforts. Tony also enjoyed his year when the park project was started.

Janice (Club Service, five years) says her work for the club makes her feel like a Rotarian, not just a Rotary member. She’s another who likes to have fun. Donna pointed out that club service is important for membership retention since it’s the fun part of Rotary, including the fund raisers and social events.

Robert (Youth Service) is happy for his three helpers: Pam, Brendan, and Kathy. YouthAct at Salida Middle School boasts over forty members. Brendan informed us that InterAct at Big Valley Christian will work this year on a Heifer International project, and Adopt A Family. Bill (Treasurer) enjoys counting all the money! (He apparently also likes nominating unsuspecting fools as club officers!)

Bob, our secretary keeps records of members and signs checks but his favorite part is that he greets members and visitors at club meetings.

Donna also reminded us that she is president-elect and, as such, she will be looking for directors and officers for next year, as well as a president-elect for her year.

Be thinking about what you’d like to do to serve next year!
