Janice promised that a butcher, a baker, and a candlestick maker would come to Salida Rotary. The butcher and baker visited with us, and on Friday the triad was complete with the candlestick maker.

Sandy Veneman, who graduated college with a degree in fine arts, and her husband are the owners of Chartreuse Muse Gallery and Art School in Modesto.

Sandy showed us some of her artwork of candlestick holders. These included hanging lamps to hold votive candles and "pinch pot" oil lamps. Sandy's art school includes classes in drawing, painting, mixed media, and clay. Classes are offered for children from preschoolers to high school, and classes for adults.

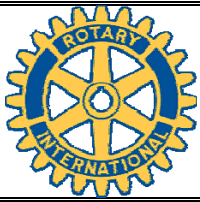

From October 22nd to 25th her gallery is hosting a fine art auction to benefit third world women overcoming poverty. Her studio is located at 918 10th St. in Modesto. For more information, contact

Sandy at 209-522-0935, or check out her website at www.thechartreusmuseum.com. The website says

“Sandra Veneman and Ellen Roehne are the co-owners of The Chartreuse Muse. Working together Sandra and Ellen give The Muse a warm spark that has inspired wonderful students and patrons alike. Sandra and Ellen are both talented artists, as well as, art teachers. Together, Ellen and Sandra, work to make The Chartreuse Muse the best gallery and art school their combined effort can produce. You can meet Sandra and Ellen every third Thursday at the Gallery Art Walk.”

International Responsibilities of Rotarians – Part 2

“A world-minded Rotarian:

- supports action directed toward improving standards of living for all peoples, realizing that poverty anywhere endangers prosperity everywhere;
- upholds the principles of justice for mankind;
- strives always to promote peace between nations and prepares to make personal sacrifices for that ideal;
- urges and practices a spirit of understanding of others’ beliefs as a step toward international goodwill, recognizing that there are certain basic moral and spiritual standards which will ensure a richer, fuller life.”

That is quite an assignment for any Rotarian to practice in thoughts and actions!

‘When this philosophy was developed, Rotary was still an all-male organization. The description of a world-minded Rotarian today would obviously include all women
