Salida's Kountry Kitchen

Friday's meeting was different. Different meeting place, different meeting program. We met at Salida's Kountry Kitchen, and were served by our very own Geary Oreglia. After a delicious breakfast of scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, French toast, hash browns, juice and coffee, we celebrated Geary's 60th birthday, and heard from several members on various subjects. After Joel drank his coffee from a mug with HIS name on it, he showed us an article on Modesto Christian's basketball team that is headed for a competition at the University of Kentucky for a nationally prestigious showcase for top-level Division I college recruits.

The main reason for MC's invitation is standout forward Reeves Nelson, considered one of the top junior basketball players in the nation. He received scholarship offers from Arizona, Cal, Duke, Georgetown, Kentucky, North Carolina, USC and UCLA. He has chosen UCLA. Joel is a big fan and is very proud of our home-town team. We are, too!

Helen confessed that she had lost her badge and Charlie expressed his desire to even have a badge. So we gave Bob a bad time and he promised to get it for him and one for our new member, Kim, also.

Happy 60th Birthday, Geary!

Joel and Bob both had mugs with their names on them. Do you think they eat here a lot?

Donna announced that she has some of her team together for her year, starting in July.

Member #28!

On Friday we inducted a new member. Yeah – finally Kim Bizzanelli has joined us! A Farmer’s Insurance agent, Kim brings experience in non-profits and a lot of enthusiasm. And, she’s ready to get started – she has accepted the role of Club Service Chair for the 2008-2009 year. We look forward to having Kim among us. Thanks to her sponsor, Jan Moore, for bringing her to us.
